DME takes YOU there April 9-16, 2012! Travel with your favorite musicians

Picture yourself on a vacation filled with music, friendship and laughter that will enrich your life and brighten your spirit. Delta Music Experience (DME) gives musicians and music enthusiasts the opportunity to experience music and travel together – into the heart of The Mississippi Delta - in an intimate setting.

“To feel The Blues in your heart, experience The Blues in your soul. The soul of The Blues lives in The Delta and Delta Music Experience takes you there!”

- Amanda Gresham

Many writers and musicians have described their River Road Journeys through the Mississippi Delta. Now you can travel that path with musicians, musical guides, historians, and educators.

Explore the Mississippi Delta including Clarksdale, Greenwood, Indianola, Greenville and more via the DMExpress BluesBus on The River Road and Highways 61 & 49.

You'll discover the roots of blues music and the places where some of the blues greats both past and present began their careers. This land is where the uniquely American music called Blues was born. DME offers a small traveler-to-musician ratio that offers everyone the opportunity to connect with the musicians, spend time with friends & family and forge new friendships on an extraordinary musical journey that is the only one of its kind.

The DMExperience kicks off April 9th, with The Cedric Burnside Project, Mizz Lowe featuring special guest Bobby Rush, as well as Lady "A". April 10-12, All aboard The DMExpress Blues Bus with Super Chikan, Lady "A", Eden Brent, Lightnin' Malcolm and Cameron Kimbrough as well as Mizz Lowe's LOWEdown Rush.

Explore the backroads the locals know, discover the roots of blues with stories handed down through the generations. See DMEExclusive performances in an intimate setting. It's easy for guests to get to know the artists and educators in this up-close, musical experience you'll remember for a lifetime.

Delta Music Experience's unique musical vacations create an awareness of and appreciation for the music, culture, art and cuisine of the Louisiana and Mississippi Delta. DME's soul-lifting performances, spontaneous jams, and personal stories will leave you entertained, educated and enriched.
